our brand story

Because of the often intrusive, and predictable, nature of traditional marketing tactics, consumers have become over-exposed and desensitized to conventional ad strategies making it difficult for brands to capture the attention of their target market. These growing obstacles have prompted marketers to innovate and evolve their unique position in order to remain competitive.

At The Aroma Haus, we develop customized sensory marketing strategies that will ensure that you stand out above your competition. The Aroma Haus is more than scent, we are an investment into the perception of your brand. Our highly mastered sensory marketing strategy will not only enhance your customers' experience with your brand but will keep your business top of mind.

SCENTING program

Scent is an unparalleled experiential trigger that can instantly elevate the perception of your brand in the eyes of your guests as it is most closely linked to memory. A scented space creates a greater emotional involvement for guests and while some businesses do scent their establishments, they miss the mark when it comes to linking their signature scent to a greater marketing strategy that will help to ensure experience recall, brand recall, and word-of-mouth outcomes from your clients.

Once you choose a signature fragrance, The Aroma Haus will scent your space using one of our commercial grade diffusers.

Then, we will develop a line of scented products curated exclusively for your brand.

With your very own private line of scented products, your guests can re-experience your brand again and again on a more intimate level, in the privacy of their own home.

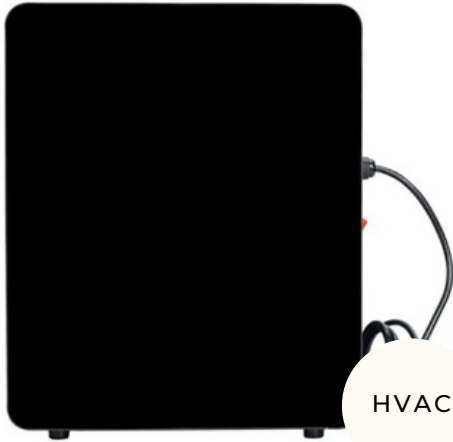

THE STATS

According to hospitality consumer research by Business Impact of Scent Report and S. Stolberg

- 91% of consumers said a pleasant smell had a positive impact
- 67% of consumers say a pleasant smell would make them feel more patient and relaxed
- 69% of customers say that a pleasant smell would improve their perception of the brand
- 45% increased revenue from guests in scented casinos as players spend 45% more in a scented environment
- 40% improvement in mood when a pleasant scent is experienced, critical for reducing anxiety

First impressions count. Because smell will provide your clients with a sense of comfort, orientation, and familiarity before the visual role is fully established, implementing a scented sensory strategy will enhance the immersive experience and perception of your brand.

Step 02

If you choose to have a scent recreated or fully developed from scratch, we will schedule a follow-up meeting once our perfumers have completed the project for you to smell and confirm the sample fragrance. (additional charge)

Step 03

We will implement your commercial grade diffuser and train your staff on how to operate the Bluetooth app which controls the scenting equipment..

Step 04

Now it's time to stock your shelves. We will deliver your opening order of scented, branded products. You can reach out and place reorders at any time!

Further Customization

While The Aroma Haus provides a very exclusive sensory strategy for your brand, we do have options to further customize. Our scent development package allows you to fully create your fragrance from scratch. This ensures that you will be the only client in the world with your signature scent.

Want to further brand your product labels outside of The Aroma Haus base label? We will work with your graphic designers to provide sizing requirements so that they can develop a fully branded product label. Then, we will print and apply to your products at no extra cost!
